

Mrs. Peacock: A wealthy and elegant wife of a senator with a tendency for gossip. She is often seen as a socialite with a mysterious past.

Colonel Mustard: A military man with a strong and commanding presence. He is often portrayed as dense, pompous, and puffy.

Miss Scarlet: A glamorous and seductive woman with a sense of mystery. She is more interested in secrets than sex. Known for her wit and charm, but also suspected of darker motives.

Mr. Wadsworth: A traditional "British" butler who works at Boddy Manor. He exhibits a refined and composed demeanor. Directs the guests and manages the unfolding mystery with a touch of theatricality.

Professor Plum: He is an intellectual and scholarly figure. Often portrayed as thoughtful and analytical.

Mrs. White: A stern and serious woman, may or may not have killed her 5 ex-husbands. She also may have a connection to the household staff.

Mr. Green: A timid and serious rule follower. Dressed in a manner that suggests business or wealth. Often seen as opportunistic and extremely anxious.

Yvette: A loyal and sexy french maid.

The Cook: A gruff woman with a threatening presence.

The Singing Telegram Girl: A tap dancer with a heart of gold.

Mr. Boddy: A slick, Frank Sinatra type fella. He is also the owner of Boddy Manor.

The Motorist: A professional motorcycle driver.

Chief of Police: A cop who helps save the day.

Back up cop: Back up for the Chief and the final cop entrance.